

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Week 7

- Psalms 139:13-14

We understand that everyone is at a different place in their journey and with the Lord's leading in your life, it is our dearest hope and fervent prayer that one day soon you will be willing to accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior.

WATCH SESSION 6 - (Approx. 10 minutes)

FOLLOW-UP DISCUSSION / QUESTIONS:

- After these sessions, has your journey brought you to a new place?

- As LDS, we were often given "callings" or assignments in the church without discussion. Reflecting on how God has made you, what do you see are strengths He's given you? If you aren't sure, we want to encourage you that in your Christian walk, you will discover your strengths, receive spiritual gifts, and that He has a purpose for you and it will be unique from anyone else.

- Is there anything holding you back from freely giving your life to Christ right now?

Acts 4:12 - Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved.

Titus 2: 11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.

God Bless You! We are praying for you and our hope is that one day our journey will lead us all to witness the glory of God together. As the angels who worship God in heaven say, "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!" - Rev. 7:12
